The Birth of a Book / The Celebration of an Icon

Megumi Bennett is internationally recognised as a bonsai and ikebana artist, teacher demonstrator and lecturer.

In 2015 author, Mary Ann Napper, was invited to Tokyo to stay with Megumi's family. She visited the places where Megumi spent her childhood and early adult years and listened to Megumi's family tell her story as it evolved through happy and turbulent times.

Megumi's extraordinary life inspired and challenged Mary Ann to write Nature's Child – A Life within Two Cultures.
